Lake Motosu Upside down Fuji

Lake Motosu is the deepest and clearest in Fuji Five Lakes. You can see Upside down Fuji reflected on the surface of the water. That is exactly on the back of the 1000 yen bill and old 5000 yen bill

This is a gently sloping lateral cave that can be easily toured. It has historical significance and is a designated natural monument.

The Fuji Fugaku Wind Cave is surrounded by the abundant greenery of the Aokigahara Jukai forest. Once you enter the cave, it is pleasantly cool even in summer, with an average temperature of 3°C.

This is a pit type cave that is rich in natural undulations, providing an adventure world full of curiosity.

The Narusawa Hyoketsu Ice Cave is located at the east entrance to the Aokigahara Jukai "sea of trees" forest, and is regarded as one of the tourist spots within the Fuji Five Lakes area that can be visited throughout the year.

Seiko Iyashi no Sato NEMBA

You can enjoy original scenery in Japan. Also there are some thatched houses there. Please try Japanese traditional experience.
